CONCORDIA WRESTLERS WIN NATIONAL CROWN

Concordia University head Wrestling coach, Victor Zilberman took five wrestlers to Saskatoon on the weekend (February 25th and 26th) for the C.I.A.U. Championship Tournament and came away with the National Title. Zilberman, who was selected C.I.A.U. "Coach of the Year" had four of his wrestlers win and one place second, giving Concordia a team total of 23 points, 5 more than Guelph and 6 better than third place Lakehead.

Pat Sullivan, who was selected as the outstanding wrestler the week before in the Q.U.A.A. Tournament at Guelph, was picked as the Tournament's Outstanding Wrestler once again, winning in his weight class of 72 kilos. Gary Kallos was the heavyweight winner (96 kilos). Serge Marcil was first in the 86 kilos, Graham Dadswell took the 76 kilos class, while Pat Sullivan's brother, Mike was second in the 61 kilos class.

It was an exceptional performance for the second consecutive week for the Concordia team. Last week in the Q.U.A.A. final at Guelph Concordia placed 3 firsts and 1 second to earn the right to compete in Saskatoon.
